SMILES.

SMILE a little, smile a little,
As you go along,
Not alone when life is pleasant
But when things go wrong.
Care delights to see you frowning,
Loves to hear you sigh;
Turn a smiling face upon her,—
Quick the dame will fly.

Smile upon the troubled pilgrims
Whom you pass and meet;
Frowns are thorns, and smiles are blossoms
Oft for weary feet;
Do not make the way seem harder
By a sullen face,
Smile a little, smile a little,
Brighten up the place.

Smile upon your undone labour:
Not for one who grieves
O'er his tasks waits wealth or glory,—
He who smiles achieves.
Though you meet with loss and sorrow
In the passing years:—
Smile a little, smile a little,
Even through your tears.
